

PURCHASING POLICY

In terms of relationship with our suppliers, Insotel Hotel Group is a company that considers the links that make up the industry, from the end customer to the suppliers of raw materials.

The general purchasing policy of Insotel Hotel Group aims to cover the operational needs of hotels and corporate centres that can be solved through an acquisition or contracting, to produce a greater profit, reducing costs and enhancing income as a company without prejudice to quality, always considering the environmental vision and promoting the local supplier.

Following this policy, the mission of the Purchasing Department is defined as the management of suppliers that meet the needs of the internal client (hotel / corporate) in a balanced and sustainable way in time and in the environment.

In addition, the following criteria are evaluated for the selection of a supplier:

- Geographical supply area of the supplier. Prevailing local providers
- Quality, environmental and health certifications.
- Economic conditions.
- No violation of human rights.
- Returnable packaging and / or type of waste generated.
- Recycled and recyclable products.

At Insotel Hotel Group it is intended that the relationship with suppliers is satisfactory and consequently long-lasting over time.

Insotel Hotel Group is not aware that any of its contractors or suppliers violated human or environmental rights in their labour practices.
